

Builders Emporium Will Open

Construction of the new Builders Emporium store in Ladera Heights is moving ahead on schedule and completion is expected in time for the Oct. 21 grand opening.

The new store is located at 5233 W. Centinela Ave., at La Tijera Boulevard.

Like all Builders Emporium stores, the new outlet will feature a complete line of supplies for the do-it-yourself home owner. A special feature of the 30,000 square foot store will be a garden shop.

Other stores in the chain are located in Van Nuys, Riverside, Covina, La Habra, Buena Park, and La Crescenta. The store is a division of Food Giant Stores, Inc.

Enlistee May Select Field, Assignment

The Army's "choose-yourself" selection program is available to qualified applicants enlisting during October, according to M/Sgt. James J. Catena of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station at 1319 1/2 Sartori.

"The enlistee is provided a written guarantee in selecting a technical school, field of interest, job, or overseas area," said Catena.

There are 110 technical courses available to high school graduates. In addition, there are career groups open to graduates or non-graduates, who qualify for enlistment.
